OAKFIELD TOWNSHIP HISTORICAL COMMISSION

20 October 2016

The Oakfield Township Historical Commission meeting was called to order at 10:00am by President, Clair Bouck. Carolyn Balko gave a moving prayer for the commission and our nation. The Pledge of Allegiance was followed by roll call of officers. Members present were Sharon Bouck, Ed Jackson, Alice Jackson, Steve Tower, Carolyn Balko, and John Frueh. Volunteers present were Judy Gager, Bill Garlick, Sue Irvine, Claudia Day, and Ray Salyer. Copies of the August minutes were distributed. Since there were no corrections or additions, the report was approved and placed on file. A brief financial report was given.

In unfinished business, J.Gager reported on the October TriRiver bus trip to the Midland co area, the theme for 2017 Spring into the Past will be fashions through the ages, the Flat River library exhibit Oct 20 of local museum artifacts (she will prepare a table with Oakfield items), and a presentation by Bill Garlick at the Fighting Falcon museum on Nov 1. We received a picture of the O'Brien school donated to the Grattan museum which they in turn donated to us with permission from the owner. Judy will contact the owner for other possible items they may wish to donate. Sue Irvine suggested at a prior volunteer meeting to display the original AOOG emblem, which had been on the outside of the building, be assembled and mounted upstairs above the stage. The idea was well received and will be looked into when men have the time.

In new business, it was decided to meet at the Winter Inn on Dec 15 at 11:30 for our annual Christmas get together.

John Frueh motioned to adjourn, seconded by Steve Tower, motion passed. Following the meeting, the members covered displays for the winter.

Meeting adjourned at 10:27am.

Sharon Bouck, Sec.
