OAKFIELD TOWNSHIP HISTORICAL COMMISSION

17 August 2017

The Oakfield Township Historical Commission was called to order at 1:30 pm by President, Clair Bouck. Judy Gager gave a prayer followed by the Pledge of Allegiance. Commission members present were: Clair Bouck, Sharon Bouck, Alice Jackson, and Ed Jackson. Absent members: Carolyn Balko, John Frueh, and Steven Tower. Volunteers present were Judy Gager, Sue Irvine, and Ray Sayler. Copies of the July minutes were distributed. A short treasurer's report was given. There were no corrections or additions to either, both were placed on file.

In unfinished business: S.Irvine reported on the TriRiver meeting, J.Frueh, E.Jackson, and A.Jackson were reminded to renew their oaths at the township hall, and J.Gager reported on the Aug 13 open house. J.Gager suggested we collect $60 from a township business, $15 from our commission, and $10 from individuals with block signs to advertise in the Quilt Block booklet. S.Bouck will attempt to locate an interested business.

In new business: J.Gager reported on updating the cemetery records with the help of the township clerk and deputy clerk, J.Gager requested $80 to repay her for the purchase of two mannequins, S.Bouck reported on purchasing small sandwich board signs which were found at a yard sale. Hopefully they can be repainted with museum info to be used during open houses.

E.Jackson moved to close the meeting, seconded by A.Jackson. Meeting closed at 2:24pm.

Respectfully Submitted,

Sharon Bouck
