OAKFIELD HISTORICAL COMMISSION

The meeting was called to order by president, Steve Tower, at 10:08. S.Bouck gave a prayer followed by the Pledge of Allegiance. Those present were S.Tower, S.Bouck, E.Jackson, J.Frueh, C.Balko, and R.Sayler. Two guests were also present. Minutes were distributed, read, and approved. A brief treasurer's report was given.

Unfinished business: S.Irvine gave the Tri-River report. We will be getting 100 newly printed museum booklets in 2024. The last edition printed was 2020 and many changes have transpired since. She also reported the theme of the 2024 Spring into the Past will be prominent women of the past. S.Bouck stated she wished to continue working on the plaques for the five original founders; Katherine Tower, Wanda Sowerby, Alice Jackson, and Linda VanHoose. Sue Harper's has already been completed.

New business: The commission decided to hold a Christmas Lunch at Halfway Restaurant on Dec 21 (our regular meeting day). This had been a yearly event which stopped during the pandemic.

Motion to adjourn made by Balko, meeting adjourned at 10:50
